With these exceptions it has not gone Democratic in fifty years past. It has clung to the fortunes of our glorious leader with unfaltering devotion, and

The News.

The telegraphic returns received here last night from the Northern States look decidedly unfavorable to the Democracy. They are from points, however, where we expected heavy losses. We have not seen enough yet to form a clear we believe he is elected in that precinct "by a scratch!"

Christiansburg precinct, Shelby county gave Breckinridge a majority of 77, the same that Buchanan obtained in 1856.

Hon, W. W. Eaton.

Whatever the result of the election of to-day, we take pleasure in recognizing our high appro-ciation of the efficient and unselfish service ren-dered to our cause by the Hon. W. W. Eaton, of Connecticut. He has participated in our canmocracy of New Lingland. He cut, find a cordial response here, and would be warmly echoed in the most extreme portions of the there are a number .- Lou. Journal. community. He speaks here as he spoke in Connecticut, and the Democracy of both localities applaud. Democratic principles receive no coloring from change of latitude, are not affected by climatic changes. Our people have, in Mr. Eaton, had a lair and honest type of Connecticut Democracy. He is not an obscure member of the party at home, but is its acknowledged leader and exponent, has received its highest honors, and effects its real and sincere tenets. As such, the Democracy of Kentucky receive him, and hearing lim, have given him their unqualified applause. Nor is he alone at home. Nineteen twentieths ol the Democrats of Connecticut stand on the very platform of this canvass. Mr. Eaton is but one of thousauds, and his words here have been the conviction of thousands of good and tried friends in distant New England. What other political organization in the land can present such concl sive evidences of its nationality.

Mr. Exton has established for himself a reputation in Kentucky which may well gratify him. He has won the confidence and admiration of an intelligent and generous people. He has their grateful appreciation for his opportune services, and will not be forgotten.

We apprehend that Mr. Eaton's generous aid at this time will bring to him future drafts for his service. So able and eloquent a champion of Thos. B. MONEGE our cause will be hereafter called upon, and we know he will not fail to respond.

DEATH OF MAJ. CARNEAL .- The Cincinnati has justly earned the distinction of being the banner Breckinridge county in Kentucky.

DEATH OF MAJ. CARREAL.—The distinction of being the city on Saturday announced the death in that city on Saturday last of Maj. Thos. Davis Carneal, in the seventy fifth year of his page. Maj. Carneal was a nature of Kentucky, but, at the age of twenty-one, in 1806, removed to Cincin uati, and about that time married the sister of the for his financial ability and excellence of judg ment. The deceased had once served u term or two in the Kentucky Legislature, and was the member who introduced a bill for the gradual emancipation of slavery in the State, which, it will be remembered, was lost by a single vote. He was reared with, and an intimate friend of many of the most distinguished men of Kentucky, among whom were Henry Clay, Governor Morehead, General Dudley, and others, who have associated their names with the political history of the United States. He had four children, one of whom, Mrs. Waridea of the result, (in a horn,) but Breckin-ridge's chances are the best in Bald Knob and Governor Foote, of Mississippi, and another, Louis, the daughter of the lite distinguished merchant, Josiah Lawrence, Esq. this second daughter Sallie was for some years a reigning belle, and of the West or South. She became the wife of a distinguished financier in New Orleans, and died erty to the amount of $200,000 or $300,000, he made many valuble improvements and recently erected several fine blocks of husiness houses. For several years past he resided in Franktort, Kentucky, minid the scenes and friends of his youth. Though somewhat occentric and opinionate he vass with great zeal, and we know that his efforts possessed a large and generous nature, and various have been rewarded with the most gratifying estimable qualities that endeared but to a residual to the conicion. clo of Irrends. He lived longer than the period Mr. Eaton is a representative of the sound Do- usually allotted to man, and expired peacef. ly in the presence of his relations and friends. Proclamation by the Governor.

In accordance with a time-honored custom, as well as with my own convictions of propriety, I hereby designato Thursday, the 29th instant, as a day of public Thanksgiving and prayer throughout the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and recommend that the people on that day abstain from their secular vocations, close their places of business, and unite in Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the countless blessings we have received at His hands,

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at Frankfort, this 5th day of November, A. D., 1860, and in the 69th year of Commonwealth.

Glad News for the Unfortunate!

Johnson, the Douglas candidate for Vice Presi- an announcement sent to the four quarters of the dent, made a speech in the city of New York, in which he thus spoke of the election of Lincoln and its consequences. We commend his remarks particularly to those who appland Douglas's Norfolk speech, and profess to believe that Yancey is guilty of treason and will ever be a natter of conjecture only. It is upusual, and we are sure the recommendation is

TION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY, AND ITS INSTAL-Lation in the G -veanment, would be the distrasince of the Union. The logical sequence of those Republican doctrines was the equality, civil, religious, and political, of the African ne gro and the American white man. The doctrine meant that, if it meant anything, and he was a hypocrite who denied it. [Applause.] In his euuntry white men believed that they were hetter than the negru. Those who thought differently were entitled to their sweet-scented opinion. [Langhter and applause.] The Republican doc trine would make the black man eligible to the trine would make the black man engile to the high st office in the nation, and any man who would deny that this was the logical sequence of Republican doctrines, was either a fool or a knave. [Lond appliance.] If the Republicans should succeed, it would be considered proper that their daughters should be led to the marriage altar by Sambo. Applause, and a voice, "that's so"! The negro vote of Ohio was more than the ma jurity lately given for the Republican ticket. And, if the negroes had been kept in a subordinate place, as they should be, doubtless Onio would have cost her vote for the Union and the Constitution. [Applause.] The Republican party announces that ull these States must become either tree or slave, and now they are to settle the question, AND TO MEET THIS DECLARATION OF WAR AGAINST THE PROPERTY INTEREST OF FIFTEEN STATES OF THIS UNION IN 4,400,000 OF BLAVES, WORTH $5,000,000,000. Had they ever read of a people willing to submit to the destruc-tion of so much property under the form of legis-lation? ['No, no.'] Let them fix their minds upon one article of property in the North, and imigme the South making an effort to destroy If the North would submit it would be so mean and cowardly that a dog would not bark at them. [Applaase.] And that was the cosicion of the South THEY WOULD SUFFER EX TERMINATION BEFORE THEY WOULD SUBMIT. [Land applaase.] The Republican pairty proclaimed a higher law in direct reference to this question of slavery—meaning their contributions of slavery—meaning their c to his question of slavery—meaning their convictions of natural right and natural justice; holding that that law was paramount to the Constitution. What was the use of a Constitution if this higher law was to prevail? What sort of President and Cahmet would we have it the higher law should prevail? Our national progress was due to our writter Constitution. [Chais] Advisor of the Remblic, all combine to render that the property should obtain the secondary, and the portion of the Remblic, all combine to render that the property should obtain the property should obtain the period of the Point and of our civil liberties. Garibaldi's Personal Heroism. The most brilliant episode of the action of the 1st of October was the re capture of the battery at the foot of Mont S. Angelo When I lett Santa Maria, I knew that this battery had been very much disabled in the morning. Garibaldi arrived at nine o'clock, when the enemy was engaged in vending intoxic ting liquor close their thundering at it with all his strength, because it took him in flank, and was causing him severe day

The Royalists, to the number of 2,500, got round the hill, and rushing upon the the men at their places. Garabaldi, on the Sin-Tammarro side, soon observed the silence of his Livorne battery, and an aid-de comp from General M lwitz soon informed him at the disaster, which would probably have lost him the battle. Garibabli at once started off, crossed Santa Maria, followed by Medici and his staff, and, collecting what men he could, cried out in a voice which caused all to shudder. "We are going to die, but the Italians must win the day; at all other points we have conquered." Followed by one hundred men, at a rapid pice, Garibaldi, leading the way in a small disabled carriage, went right This inner in veneral whole it forward. But just as they got near the Cas of San Angelo, some Neapolitan Chasseurs who were lying on the ground rose and fell upon them Fue coachman drove his horses into a ditch, and formed a burricade of the carriage. Garihaldi jumped up, indignant, and went up to the Chas-seurs, shouting. "Viva Italia!" Some of his mea coming up at the same time, the ene by became demoralized, and took to flight. Guribaldi was slightly wounded in the stomach, and his trousers were ridilled by two or three bullets. "If I only had another pur," he said, and without further remark he continued his march towards a battalion of 150 Haugarians, commanded by Gen. Mogvcrady. He pointed to the Neapolitans who were in po-session of the battery, and cried out to them. "Forward, my lads, disperse that rabble youder for me!" This "rabble" consisted of a regiment of the line, a squadron of cavalry, a company of chasseurs and a company of artillery. The Hongarians, without waiting to count the numbers of the adversary, rushed forward and charged with the bayonet. After a contest of twenty minutes, the battery was re-taken, and once more it poured its sorm of grape on the Neapolops, who fled in confusion across the field. Proclamation Extraordinary.

The lollowing extraordinary proclamation was On Wednesday, the 24th Oct., Herschel V. dissided by the Mayor on Saturday, "at the suggestion of several gentlement of trominent position in our community," and in accordance with worthy of death for similar declarations. Mr. Johnson said:

Johnson said:

The only effect would be to heave thousands of our people, men and hoys, idle on that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day, to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds around the voting that day to gather in crowds are considered to gather the voting that day to gather in crowds are considered to gather the crowds are considered to gather the crowds are considered to gather than the crowds are considered to gather the crowds are considered to gather the crowds are considered to gather the crowds are places, and thus to interfere with the tree exer cise of the right of suffrage, rather than to bring out a full and fair vote. It will not take any one man in the city more than ten minutes to cast his vote, and surely it cannot be necessary for the business houses, the stores, the manufactories, and the shops, to close during the day, in order to secure a full vote, and we have not met onc business man in the city who does not a gree with us that there is nothing to call for or to justily the Mayor's proclamation. And what is more remarkable, perhaps, than the recommendation to the "stores, counting rooms," &c., is the total alisence of any special request to the keepers of bars and drinking houses, to cluse their establishments on that day!

We desire a full and fair vote here to-morrow. Every friend of Louisville desi es it. The man who would throw one obst cle in the way of such an expression of puldic sentiment should be wealth, no matter who he may be. We cannot believe, in view of the vital interest, immediate and direct, which Louisville has in having it known to the world that the day of violence and riot and obstructed oalls is gone never to return, that any man in its limits it hase enough to do peace We expect it. We expect no difficulties, no disturbance, no violence or fraud to-morrow. We have a right to expect none.
